

Phil Gurin

Executive Producer

Award-winning Producer/Writer/Creator and President & CEO of The Gurin Company (www.gurinco.com) and TGC Global Entertainment (www.tgc-global.com), Phil Gurin creates, acquires, sells, produces and distributes entertainment programs all over the world. Gurin has won four Prime Time Emmy Awards for ABC's Shark Tank, an international Rose d'Or (Golden Rose) for the physical comedy game show Oh Sit, and a Gold Telly Award for the 50th NAACP Image Awards. His show, The Singing Bee, is one of the Top 35 most produced original formats in the world. He has written and produced over 3,000 hours of television that has been seen in more than 185 countries, and many other formats and specials, including Canada's Ultimate Challenge, Fridge Wars, Weakest Link, Lingo, Test The Nation, Candid Camera, Double Dare, Remote Control, Before They Were Stars, Your Chance To Dance, Wanna Bet?, All-New 3's A Crowd, Make The Grade, Win Lose or Pawn, So You Think You'd Survive, FOX's New Year's Eve Live, Women Rock, US Olympic Hall of Fame, KISS: Live, Friday Night Vibes, Honoring Our Kings: A Celebration of Black Fatherhood, Holocaust: The Revenge Plot, The Swap Project, Miss America, Miss Teen USA, Miss USA and Miss Universe.

Gurin is honored to be an Executive Producer on this his 12th NAACP Image Awards. He recently launched the independent distribution company TGC GLOBAL ENTERTAINMENT specializing in formats, entertainment, factual and documentaries. Gurin is Co-Chair of the international non-profit organization FRAPA (Format Recognition and Protection Association), served on the board of NATPE and is a member of the Producer's Peer Group Executive Committee for the Television Academy. He speaks, moderates panels and writes frequently about the world of formats and the international television business. He also makes wine (visit www.gurinwines.com).